NEW Parade Guidelines & Rules for Elected Officials & Political Parties

- ◆ Parking of personal vehicles is NOT permitted at the Church. Please park in lots around the parade route, and walk, or car pool to the drop off location at the church parking lot.
- ◆ If any group is disruptive on the staging grounds or in the parade procession, or does not immediately comply with a Parade Marshal's instructions, your group will be immediately removed from the parade and not invited to participate in the future. DO NOT STOP ALONG THE ROUTE.
- ◆ NO disrespectful behavior toward the Parade Marshals or Police Officers will be tolerated.
- ◆ EACH politician or candidate must file an entry form and pay the $250.00 participation fee regardless of where they march in the parade, OR if they share a vehicle.
- ◆ Politicians & candidates are to limit their entourage to one vehicle and no more than 25 supporters walking with them. Only one elected official or candidate per entry. You are encouraged to have any additional supporters stand along Columbia Pike to cheer you onward. Elected officials will be assigned a parade position & stage toward the front of the parade and candidates in positions throughout the parade as assigned in advance.
- ◆ Those in a vehicle must remain in the vehicle during the parade. Elected officials may be taken to the reviewing stand via Little River Turnpike after completing the parade route to watch the remainder of the parade.
- ◆ Participants are to be dropped-off at the Annandale United Methodist Church, 6935 Columbia Pike, Annandale no later than 9:00 AM. Your one parade vehicle must be dropped off by 8:30 AM as the lane behind you will be blocked by 9:00 AM.
- ◆ Each participating unit should be identified by a banner or sign on the vehicle or preceding their unit.
- ◆ No candy is to be thrown from vehicles. It may be handed out to the crowds by participants walking along either side of the street. We do not want children running into the street to retrieve candy. All vehicles must continue to move forward.
- ◆ This parade will take place RAIN OR SHINE unless such extraordinary weather is forecast to create unsafe conditions for the public in general. The ACC will have the sole discretion in cancelling the parade if forecasted weather or other emergency conditions are deemed to be unsafe. Please check the home page of the Chamber's website at www.annandalechamber.com to see any last minute weather notifications or cancellations. No refunds will be granted due to weather or other emergency conditions or government restrictions due to Covid. The Parade will be operated according to VA and FCHD pandemic guidelines and/or restrictions. No refunds will be granted do to any cancellation after September 1, 2022.
- ◆ No staging can be accommodated on either side of the Reviewing Stand along Columbia Pike. Special guests and sponsors will be staging in those areas of the parking lot.
